

3. Family Promise of Jacksonville $12,760
A non-profit, interfaith hospitality network that provides temporary shelter, meals, hospitality and case management for families experiencing homelessness.
4. Girls on the Run of Northeast Florida $10,373
An organization that creates life-changing experiences for all girls ages 8-12 by combining training for a 5K run with important life lessons that encourage healthy habits, self-esteem, positive thinking and an active lifestyle.
5. OneJax $9,500
An organization committed to encouraging peace, understanding and respect among people of different races, ethnic backgrounds, and religions.
6. PACE Center for Girls $5,900
A non-profit organization that provides girls and young women an opportunity for a better future through education, counseling, training, and advocacy.
7. Rising Stars of Tomorrow $9,500
Provides theatre production opportunities to youth as an avenue to build strong moral character in at-risk youth.
8. Tree Hill Nature Center $12,000
An organization whose primary goal is to bring innovative programs in environmental and energy education to the young people of Northeast Florida.
9. Vision Is Priceless Council $14,380
An organization that provides free vision screenings for First Coast children and adults. Their programs target those who are at-risk for eye disease and might otherwise be unaware of the condition or unable to get help.

United Way of Northeast Florida works in partnership with volunteers, community organizations, and leaders to tackle critical issues facing children, youth, and families. United Way makes lasting changes that improve the lives of people in Baker, Clay, Duval, Nassau and northern St. Johns counties. In addition, United Way leads United Way 2-1-1, a 24/7 information referral hotline; Life: Act 2, a proactive response to an exploding senior population; Full Service Schools, a community approach to removing barriers to academic success. For more information, call 904-390-3200 or visit www.aboutunitedway.org.

Duval County Public Schools is committed to providing high quality educational opportunities that will inspire all students to acquire and use the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in a culturally diverse and technologically sophisticated world.

###

#####